

YOUR HAIR NEEDS PARISIAN SAGE

It Quickly Removes All Dandruff and Stops Falling Hair.

If your hair is full of dandruff, thin, streaky, dull, and never will do up to look pretty, do not think it must be so. Beautiful hair, thick, lustrous, and absolutely free from dandruff is only a matter of care. Hair is like a plant—it needs attention to make it grow strong and beautiful.

Parisian Sage is one of the most helpful and invigorating hair treatments known. Just one application stops falling head and removes every trace of dandruff. It goes right to the hair roots, stimulating them and furnishing the nourishment that is needed—the hair becomes soft and fluffy and appears twice as abundant.

Parisian Sage not only saves the hair and stimulates it to grow long and heavy, but gives it an incomparable gloss and beauty.

Get a bottle from Wilfred F. Root, or any drug or toilet counter. It's not expensive, and you cannot be disappointed with this delicately perfumed and helpful tonic; for even the first application will give the hair beauty and charm.

Bring Your Prescriptions Here

if you want them filled with the purest and freshest drugs, and with the greatest care and accuracy—filled precisely as your physician orders them filled, to produce the exact effects he desires.

We are proud of the record we have made in our prescription department. And yet we fill prescriptions at very reasonable prices, and fill them quickly, too.

RED CROSS RELIEF WORK IS OUTLINED

Proposed Endeavors in Connection with Calling of United States National Guard to Colors.

Dr. Henry D. Holton of this town, chairman of the Vermont chapter of the American Red Cross, has received the following communication from national headquarters, Washington, regarding proposed relief work in connection with the calling of the National Guard to the colors:

"The American Red Cross, Washington, D. C., June 22, 1916:

"Director General of Civilian Relief, Approved:
"ARTHUR MURRAY,
"Acting Chairman, Central Committee."

policy, and should have the custody of all funds, paying them out for proper purposes and under suitable rules and safeguards. New questions of policy should be referred to the director-general of civilian relief at Washington.

"Chapters are urged to exercise a thorough co-operative and cordial spirit toward other organizations and agencies which desire to participate in this work. It ought to be possible for the Red Cross, through its unusual facilities and its relation to the government to be of the greatest service to all organized groups of citizens interested in this humane and patriotic duty. Invite all such organizations to join hands with the Red Cross and by this means to give a demonstration of united, harmonious, community effort.

"ERNEST P. BICKNELL,

"Colonel, U. S. Army, Retired.
